

San Diego MESA Alliance Leadership Summit 2008

Aleksandr
Gostomelskiy

Michelai Lowe

David Valdez

What Leadership Means to Us

- “When you are a leader you must be able to take charge of a situation and do what you feel is right.” -David
- “I feel that being a leader means you are able to set examples for others to follow.”
-Mich
- “I take an active charge in solving long and short term goal in my life.” -Alex

Benefits of Our Strengths

- “Knowing my strengths means that I can better organize my club affairs and as well as my future.” -David
- “Being aware of my strengths can increase my confidence in working and relating with others.” -Mich
- “Now knowing all my strengths I am better suited to be a leader in the workplace and in higher education.” -Alex

Our Number One Strengths

- Includer: I accept others and keep in mind that others that may feel left out and make an effort to include them.
- Focus: I know my goals and stay true to them, not straying from my set path.
- Context: I make my decisions according to experiences of the past, it gives me confidence.

Leadership in Our Lives

■ We all enjoy taking an active role in our communities and other activates:

- Student ran organizations
- Workplace
- Clubs
- At Home

... and with our colleagues throughout our educational careers!!!

What We've Learned

- These past few days have taught us to focus on our strengths rather than weaknesses. We will continue to strive to reach the highest state of leadership-interdependence.

THANK YOU INDIAN HILLS & THE MESA ALLIANCE!!

