

2009 GRADUATE HORIZONS

Saturday, July 18 – Tuesday, July 21, 2009
at University of California, Berkeley

Is Your Tribe From California?

Are you a current or former undergraduate student interested in Graduate School, Medical School, Law School, or MBA Programs?

If you answered YES then please consider applying to the 2009 Summer Graduate Horizons Program

The Graduate Horizons Program is a four-day “crash course” on issues facing Native American college students, master’s students, or alumni, which helps prepare them for graduate school (master’s, Ph.D., or professional school). Faculty, admission officers and deans representing hundreds of graduate disciplines and a host of graduate and professional schools will help you:

- ◆ Select programs and career pathways suitable for you
- ◆ Learn what turns an applicant into an admitted student
- ◆ Learn graduate school survival tips
- ◆ Meet others with similar goals
- ◆ Become a test-prep “whiz kid” on the GRE, GMAT, LSAT, & MCAT

- ◆ Students will be selected by application. Applications will be accepted on a space available basis to June 1st (after May 1st, please contact us directly). There are 90 student spots available.
- ◆ Complete program cost is $175 (includes tuition, room, meals, and transportation to campus from the Oakland airport). Students are responsible for their own airfare, but substantial funds are available for airfare and tuition assistance (in 2008 the 70% of our students received travel awards).

Note: Tribal enrollment copy and photocopy of the card, CIB or letter of descendance from your tribe is needed. Tribal members are eligible to apply, including Federally, Non-Federally, and Non-State Recognized Native Americans. This program is geared toward Native American (enrolled members), First Nations, Alaska Native, or Native Hawaiian college students, college graduates, or master’s students.
