

Attention Native American, Native Hawaiian, & Alaska Native Students

2009 GRADUATE HORIZONS A PRE-GRADUATE SCHOOL PROGRAM

Saturday, July 18 – Tuesday, July 21, 2009 at UC Berkeley

The Graduate Horizons Program is a four-day “crash course” on issues facing Native American college students, master’s students, or alumni which helps prepare them for graduate school (master’s, Ph.D., or professional school). Faculty, admission officers and deans representing hundreds of graduate disciplines and a host of graduate and professional schools will help you:

- ◆ Explore special issues for Native American students
- ◆ Select programs and career pathways suitable for you
- ◆ Learn what turns an applicant into an admitted student
- ◆ Become a test-prep “whiz kid” on the GRE, GMAT, LSAT, & MCAT
- ◆ Find your way through the financial aid, scholarship, and fellowship jungle
- ◆ Complete winning applications
- ◆ Write memorable personal statements
- ◆ Learn graduate school survival tips
- ◆ Meet others with similar goals

- ◆ Students will learn about a broad variety of programs and establish personal relationships with graduate school representatives that continue long after the program is over.
- ◆ This program is geared toward Native American (enrolled members), First Nations, Alaska Native, or Native Hawaiian college students, college graduates, or master’s students.
- ◆ Students will be selected by application. Applications will be accepted on a space available basis to June 1st (after May 1st, please contact us directly). There are 90 student spots available.
- ◆ Complete program cost is $175 (includes tuition, room, meals, and transportation to campus from the Oakland airport). Students are responsible for their own airfare, but substantial funds are available for airfare and tuition assistance (in 2008 the 70% of our students received travel awards).
